

Insider's Guide to Orlando's Best Parks

	SeaWorld	Discovery Cove	Universal's Islands of Adventure	Disney-MGM Studios	Magic Kingdom	Epcot
Best attraction	 The Shamu Adventure	 Dolphin Encounter	The Amazing Adventures of Spider-Man	 Indiana Jones Epic Stunt Spectacular	Share a Dream Come True Parade	 Imagineum statues in France
Best thrill ride	Kraken	Petting the rays	Dueling Dragons roller coasters	0 to 60 in two seconds on the Rock 'n' Roller Coaster	Big Thunder Mountain Railroad	Test Track
Where to cool off	 Soak Zone at The Shamu Adventure	 Snorkeling in reefs	A tie: Popeye & Bluto's Bilge-Rat Barges and Dudley Do-Right's Ripsaw Falls	The chilly air-conditioned comfort of Who Wants To Be a Millionaire—Play It!	Snack on a Mickey Mouse ice-cream treat	 Cantina de San Angel
What to skip when short on time	Sky Tower	The gift shops	Doctor Doom's Fearfall	Studios Backlot Tour	Tomorrowland Transit Authority	Universe of Energy
Park's best eats	Take in the lagoon view with a fresh seafood lunch or dinner at Bimini Bay.	Snack on a refreshing iced fruit smoothie in between swims.	Kids and adults love the baked chicken and burgers at Oak Tree Tavern.	Keep your elbows off the table while digging into comfort food at the 50's Prime Time Café.	 Tony's Town Square Restaurant	The most elegant theme park meal is served at Bistro de Paris in France.
Fastest way around	Late afternoons and evenings have smaller crowds.	Enjoy Monday, when the other parks are the fullest.	Take a VIP Tour Experience.	Use the FastPass early in the day.	Arrive early and start in Frontierland.	Walk around the World Showcase counterclockwise.
Best souvenir	"I survived the Soak Zone" towel	Snapshots from your underwater camera of the rays and fish	A Cat in the Hat snow globe 	Winners' pins from the  Millionaire show	 Embroidered Mickey Mouse ears	Silk kimono from Japan
Best place to stay	A room on front of the Renaissance Orlando Resort to see the fireworks at SeaWorld		The fun Hard Rock Hotel	The Caribbean Beach Resort	The Contemporary, Grand Floridian, or Polynesian resorts on the monorail line
Our favorite "Ahh" factor	Clyde and Seamore Take Pirate Island show	 Feeding the birds in the aviary	Riding the Caro-Seuss-el	Watching "Beauty and the Beast Live On Stage"	The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh	Watching IllumiNations on World Showcase Lagoon